Mission

RESPECT IN GOLF

ENGLAND
GOLF

England Golf passionately believes that golf belongs to everyone.

All who play. And all who aspire to play.

As the governing body for amateur golf in England we embrace our responsibility to inspire the most welcoming environment for all to enjoy our sport.

There is no place in Golf for any form of discrimination!

Respect in Golf embodies that belief.

The Respect in Golf movement is built upon England Golf's four strategic pillars

LEAD by example:

Respect in all we do

ENERGISE & SUPPORT
with better understanding:

Establish a shared language
for change

DELIVER a safe environment:

SafeGolf accreditation

INSPIRE the most
welcoming environment:

Everyone must have an equal opportunity to participate in golf at any level

MESSAGE FROM JEREMY TOMLINSON

RESPECT

ENGLAND

A video player interface showing a man, identified as Jeremy Tomlinson, speaking on a golf course. He is wearing a dark blue polo shirt with a white collar and a small logo on the left side. The background is a blurred green golf course. The video player includes a progress bar at the bottom with a red segment, and control icons for play, next, volume, and a timestamp of 0:07 / 2:14. Other icons include a dropdown arrow, a closed captions icon, a settings gear, a red HD icon, and a full screen icon.

HERO VIDEO

RESPECT IN GOLF

An aerial, high-angle shot of a golf course. The green grass is dark, and a large, irregularly shaped water hazard is visible in the center. The lighting is somewhat dim, suggesting an overcast day or late afternoon.
